

What is a Community Health Center?

- A local "Health Care Home" for everyone, including the underserved, uninsured, underinsured, homeless, rural, and migrant populations.
- A provider of quality, comprehensive, primary and preventive medical, dental, mental health, pharmacy, and support services for residents of medically underserved and health professional shortage areas.
- An "Economic Engine" in local communities; a good return on investment.
- A community owned and governed organization, providing care and literacy appropriate educational services in the language and cultures of their communities.
- An affordable solution providing, or making provisions for, primary and preventive health care services while eliminating health disparities. Services are provided on a sliding fee scale (based on federal poverty guidelines).
- A 501(c)(3) non-profit health care organization, governed by volunteer community boards comprised of CHC patients and community leaders.
- A Federally Qualified Health Center, partially funded by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Health Resources and Services Administration, Bureau of Primary Health Care

Arkansas Primary Care Association
Access to Affordable, Quality Health Care

What Is CHCA?

Community Health Centers of Arkansas, Inc. (CHCA), Arkansas' Primary Care Association, is a nonprofit organization which strives to ensure 100% access and zero health disparities through promoting and facilitating shared resources, collaborative partnerships, and by providing technical assistance, training, and resources to impact positively the expansion of affordable, quality, comprehensive, and integrated health care services in and among Arkansas communities.

CHCA advocates, promotes, and publicizes the unique interests and contributions of its member Federally Qualified Health Centers and their multiple Health Center locations.

CHCA is governed by a board of directors composed of one director from each organizational member of CHCA.
